

HeraldsNation Tech Community: Faith-Driven Technology Innovation

A community of tech professionals integrating faith with innovation

Our mission and purpose

We are a community of tech enthusiasts, developers, designers, and digital creators united by faith and passion for technology.

Our mission includes:

- Fostering spiritual and professional growth
- Collaborating on gospel tech projects
- Integrating faith with innovation
- Praying over ideas for Kingdom impact

Overview

Our Community at a glance

119 members and growing with online meetings on Saturdays.

Professional diversity

Members represent various tech specialisations, creating opportunities for knowledge sharing and collaboration.

Connected communication

Stay updated through WhatsApp groups and join discussions via Google Meet platforms.

Active membership

119 members with diverse tech roles and specialties, continuously expanding our community reach.

Past sessions and learnings

Sessions exploring tech roles, AI's impact and portfolio building with focus on results.

-  AI workforce impact
Examination of how artificial intelligence is transforming today's workforce and creating new opportunities.

-  Results-driven portfolios
Development of story-driven portfolios that showcase measurable results and demonstrate tangible impact.

-  Tech exploration
Sessions introducing various technical roles and career goals, helping participants understand the industry landscape.

Planned milestones so far

Planning and executing various tech initiatives to support our community and ministries.

 Kingdom Hackathon

 Monthly tech projects

 Mentorship connections

 Physical meetup planning

How to become a member

Visit our communities page and join our group to get started.

Website

Visit
<https://heraldsnation.org/communities> to register.

Connect

Join the WhatsApp group for regular updates.
<https://dub.sh/heralds-tech>

Introductions

Attend monthly newcomer orientation sessions.

Participate

Collaborate on projects and share resources.

Welcome to our tech community

Join our growing network of faith-driven tech professionals. Develop your skills while making an impact. Connect with like-minded tech enthusiasts.

Thank you.

---